

GIPC GRADUATES 2023 - 2024

INSOL International is pleased to announce the fourteenth graduating class of the Global Insolvency Practice Course. The successful participants are now formally recognised as an INSOL Fellow.

Wei Meng, Chan	Drew & Napier LLC	Singapore
Adam Crane	Baker & Partners	Cayman Islands
Joost den Hollander-Arntz	Houthoff	The Netherlands
Chipo Gaobatwe	Administration of Justice	Botswana
Iлона Groark	Kobre & Kim	Cayman Islands
Thorben Langhinrichs	BRL BOEGE ROHDE LUEBBEHUESEN PartmbB	Germany
Anna Lin	Conyers Dill & Perman	Hong Kong
Lauren Macksoud	Dentons US LLP	USA
Peter Madden	Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP	Singapore
James Maltin	RIM (BVI) Limited	BVI
Nina P. Mocheva	World Bank Group
Mathew Newman	Ogier	Guernsey
James Noble	Carey Olsen	Singapore
Eddee Ng	Tan Kok Quan Partnership	Singapore
Saurav Panda	Shardul Amarchand Mangaldas & Co	India
Will Paterson	World Bank Group
Amy Patterson	Taylor Wessing LLP	UK
Cassandra Ronaldson	Interpath (Cayman) Ltd	Cayman Islands
Jaufré Rouanet	JRC Corporate Consulting	UAE
Omar Salah	Norton Rose Fulbright	The Netherlands
Nigel Trayers	Grant Thornton	Hong Kong
Jonathon Turner	Lander & Rogers	Australia
Owen Walker	R&H Restructuring (Cayman) Ltd	Cayman Islands
Lance Williams	McCarthy Tetrault LLP	Canada
Yam Wern-Jhien	Setia Law LLC	Singapore

The Global Insolvency Practice Course is INSOL International's pre-eminent advanced educational qualification focusing on international insolvency.

With the fast-growing number of cross-border insolvency cases and the adoption in many jurisdictions of international insolvency rules and provisions, the turnaround and insolvency profession face increasing challenges in the current economic environment. The current outlook demonstrates that the practitioners of tomorrow need to have extensive knowledge of the transnational and international aspects of legal and financial problems of businesses in distress.

For further information please contact Heather Callow (heather.callow@insol.org)