

INSOL
INTERNATIONAL

GLOBAL INSOLVENCY
PRACTICE COURSE

GIPC GRADUATES 2021

INSOL International is pleased to announce the eleventh graduating class of the Global Insolvency Practice Course. The successful participants are now formally recognised as an INSOL Fellow.

Rita Baguma Birungi	Ligomarc Advocates	Uganda
José Carles	CARLES CUESTA	Spain
Tammy Fu	EY	Cayman Islands
Rocky Ravinder Gupta	UNITEDJURIS	India
David Kim	KordaMentha	Singapore
Farooq Mann	Mann & Associates	Singapore
Jo-Anne Mitchell-Marais	Deloitte	South Africa
Lydia Mugambe	Judiciary of Uganda	Uganda
Richard Murphy	FFP	Cayman Islands
Tomohiro Okawa	Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu	Japan
Hajime Ueno	Nishimura & Asahi	Japan
Rhys Williams	Conyers	Bermuda
Michael Wingrave	Dentons	Cayman Islands
Kristy Zander	LK Law	Australia

The Global Insolvency Practice Course is the pre-eminent advanced educational qualification focusing on international insolvency.

With the fast-growing number of cross-border insolvency cases and the adoption in many jurisdictions of international insolvency rules and provisions, the turnaround and insolvency profession face increasing challenges in the current economic environment. The current outlook demonstrates that the practitioners of tomorrow need to have extensive knowledge of the transnational and international aspects of legal and financial problems of businesses in distress.

For further information please contact
Heather Callow heather.callow@insol.org